MEMORANDUM FOR LT. GENERAL W. BEDELL SMITH

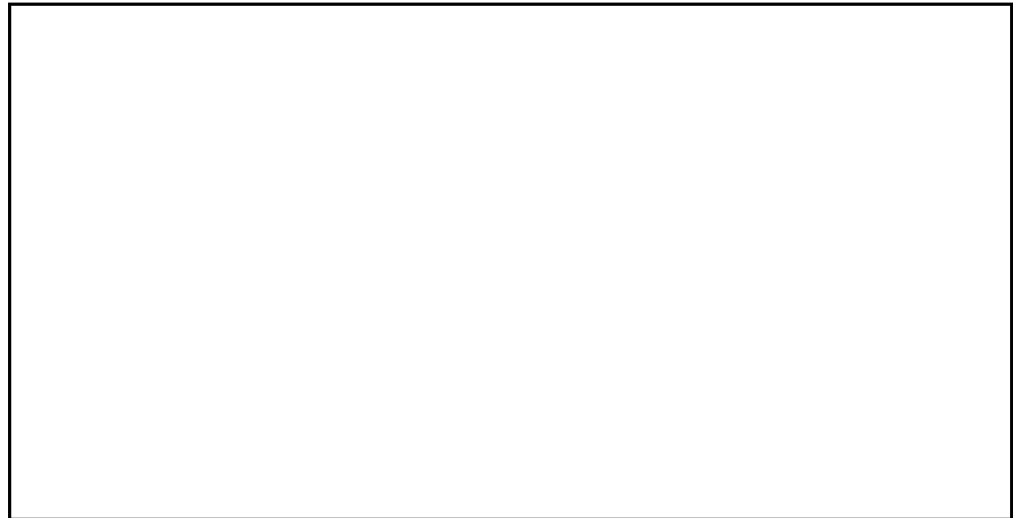

Several days ago I told you I was having a survey made of scholars and educators that might be of help to you.

The following names are suggested as having the quality to furnish leadership which will command the respect of scholars. These names are submitted solely on the competence, Security inquiry has not been attempted:

Since these men are absolutely first-class in all respects, they are very much in demand and would be very hard to get. But that's the kind of man you need. A second-rater can't attract first-raters.

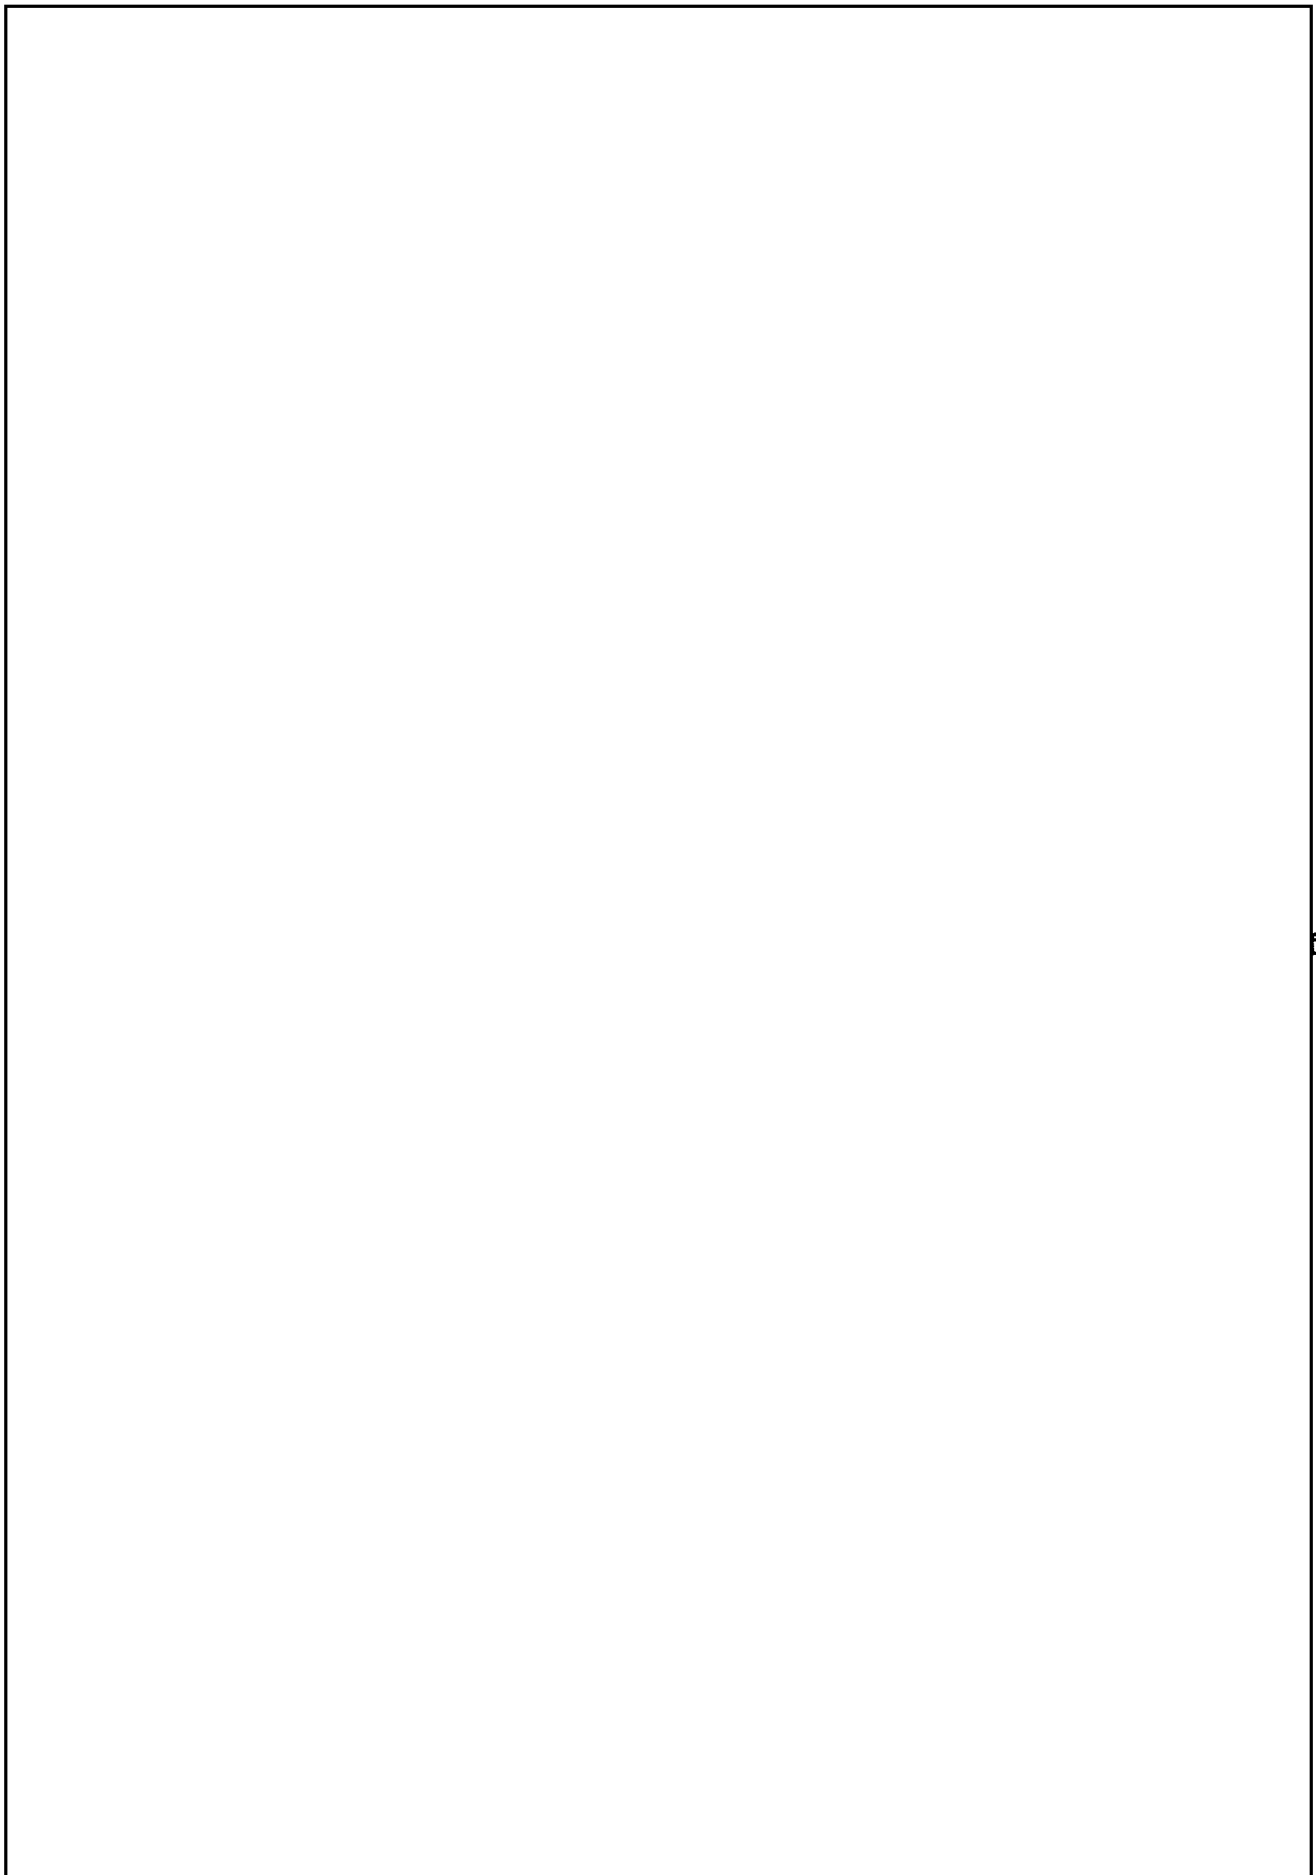

As to experts in various special fields, here is a highly selected list. These are men with a broad but thorough competence in some special area, who are also blessed with high intelligence, imagination, and sound, responsible judgment. STAT

I want to emphasize again that the men listed in these pages represent an extremely careful selection.

I hope to obtain more names because you may need to have them at hand.

on Nov. 4 - As I speak I will talk with Louis McCloy on my way to the Thompson meeting -*

*Hope you are not working too hard.
